

Contact: Kristina Franz, CAE
Executive Director
(913) 541-8084
NAFinquiries@auctioneers.org
<https://auctioneersfoundation.org/>

PRESS RELEASE

NAF OPENS APPLICATIONS FOR LEGACY YOUTH SCHOLARSHIP FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Overland Park, KS (December 5, 2025) – The National Auction Foundation (Foundation) is pleased to announce the opening of the application period for its prestigious Legacy Youth Scholarship. This annual scholarship program is designed to support promising young individuals pursuing higher education and contribute to the future of the auction industry.

The Legacy Youth Scholarship Committee, a dedicated group governed by the Foundation, is committed to fostering the next generation of auction professionals. The scholarship provides at least three deserving students with a $2,500 award to be applied toward their academic expenses for the 2026 school year.

The Legacy Youth Scholarship Committee is committed to a fair and transparent selection process. The granting of this scholarship will not affect your eligibility for other scholarships, financial aid, or grants. Furthermore, the Foundation adheres to strict privacy guidelines and will only use applicant information to assess scholarship eligibility.

To be eligible for the Legacy Youth Scholarship, applicants must:

- Be a graduating high school senior accepted into an accredited undergraduate program or school of higher education; or
- Be currently enrolled in a qualified college, university, or school of technology, having completed at least one year of coursework.

Applicants are required to complete and submit the Legacy Youth Scholarship Application Form, which includes:

- Three letters of recommendation: These letters should be from individuals who can attest to the applicant's academic abilities, character, and potential for success.
- A personal statement: The statement should address the applicant's academic and career goals, as well as their involvement in extracurricular activities and community service.

The application deadline is March 31, 2026.

The National Auction Foundation encourages all eligible students to apply and seize this opportunity to invest in their future. For inquiries, please contact: NAFinquiries@auctioneers.org.

To access the application form, please scan the QR code below:

